PREFACE

THIS is the third in the Series of Contributions to Canadian Bibliography which we are issuing, that we may make known the resources of the Public Reference Library especially in what, for want of a better term, is called "Canadiana."

The first was issued in 1916, under the title "Books and Pamphlets Published in Canada up to the Year 1837, copies of which are in the Public Reference Library.

The second was issued in 1924, under the title "The Rebellion of 1837-38, a Bibliography of the Sources of Information in the Public Reference Library."

This, the third, like its predecessors, is the work of Miss Frances Staton, the Head of the Reference Division.

GEORGE H. LOCKE,
Chief Librarian.
